The Golfer's Warm-Up

WHY SPEND TIME ON A WARM-UP?

Dynamic warm-ups beat static stretching for clubhead speed and ball striking. Golfers who skip a warm-up are injured more often.

01

Arm circles

Arms out at shoulder height. Small to big circles, forward then back.

15 EACH DIRECTION

02

Hip hinge with club

Club along your spine. Push hips back, keeping head, upper back and tailbone on the club.

8 REPS

03

Hip hinge with thoracic rotation

Wide stance, hinge forward. Reach one hand down, rotate the other to the ceiling.

5 PER SIDE

04

Lunge with thoracic rotation

Step into a lunge, club held out front. Rotate through your upper back.

8 PER SIDE

05

Overhead squat with club

Club overhead, arms wide. Squat deep, chest up, club over your feet.

6 REPS

06

Single-leg stance with side-to-side leg kicks

Balance on one leg, club for support. Swing the free leg across and out.

10 PER SIDE

07

Weighted swing with 2 clubs

Grip two irons together. Slow, controlled full swings to a balanced finish.

20 REPS

THEN, ON THE RANGE

Progressive swings

Hit a few wedges at half, three-quarter and full swings, then work through your short to long irons until you get up to the driver. Don't go straight to full swings with the driver.
